5. STAND UP

Lyrics by: S. Begun, Soloist: Z. Pearlman

*Their hearts are getting colder
And their fight is getting bolder
And determined they continue the war
They want to free our nation
Of the Torah obligation
Our legacy - they choose to ignore
They don't understand what we are
And don't see what brought us this far
The sting of their voices is felt throughout our land*

*So many gave us trouble
And they turned our lives to rubble
They were setting our history's tone
It wasn't always strangers
Who created all these dangers
Oh so often it was one of our own
Today this is still what we find
A threat of a spiritual kind
Oh how can we make our brothers understand?*

CHORUS

*STAND UP! STAND UP!
Let's come together - our chances are better if we
STAND UP! STAND STRONG!
We can be prouder - we must say it louder
That our faith we will not surrender
Let's take a stand for what's right!*

*STAND UP! STAND UP!
Let's show our brother - believe in no other when we
STAND UP! STAND TALL!
As Am Hashem - we're ready again
To be the only Torah defender
Let's hear our voices unite!*

*The culture that surround us
Just continues to confound us
Oh so steady in its shocking descent
And as the tide gets higher
Our fight becomes so dire
Must be active to a greater extent
We see some among us are drawn
Can we lead their souls to the dawn?
What must we do to preserve His Holy Name?*

*We must reverse direction
And restrengthen our connection
With the sages who have honored our past
And humbly must be going
On their righteous path of growing
So united with a peace that will last
True Kiruy will then really start
Our words can now enter their heart
We'll pass on the spark of our bright eternal flame!*

5. THE SHABBOS CANDLES

Arranged, Performed and Lyrics by:
Yerachmiel Begun

*We'll walk to Shul for Lecho Dodi
So sure that all will be fine
Though aware of our fragility
We'll say a Bracha on the Shabbos wine*

*We'll sit around on that Friday night
The songs of Shabbos we'll sing
With an eye on the time under the candles lights
We wonder what surprise it will bring*

CHORUS

*And when the clock strikes twelve
And the lights go out
Will we sit silently in our seats
Will fear set in?
Will violence win?
With darkness in the streets
We'll still have the light of the Shabbos candles*

*They call it Y2K - the experts say
We'll all be confined to a room
Will the world stand still?
They said it will
Bringing sadness, heartache, and doom
We'll still have the light of the Shabbos candles*

*So no matter what misfortunes arrives
The message for us is clear
We have one constant in our lives
No reason for worry or fear*

*The Torah's light is here to stay
It has kept us safe for so long
Perhaps this Shabbos came out on this day
To teach us our faith must be strong*
